ELLISTON COMMUNITY & VISITOR INFORMATION CENTRE NEWS

ANZAC DAY SERVICE 2021

Approx. 100 community and visitors attended the 7.00 am service, welcomed by Caroline Gillett. A tranquil morning heard the last post echo throughout the town. Les Williams attended to the flag protocol and Brevit Sergeant Anthony Perchard read The Ode. Breakfast was well attended at the Hotel.

A community discussion will be needed to discuss the future storing of the RSL photos and memorabilia due to the current building issue.

ELGAS

45KG GAS BOTTLE SWAPS

Origin is no longer involved with Elliston in regards to the 45kg gas bottles. Leaving only ELGAS, which the Elliston Caravan Park is the agent.

To try and reduce people going without gas for a few days, we ask that people make an account with ELGAS and receive a customer number before they actually come to get the bottle.

We will take the Origin bottles off your hands, but you will be responsible for informing Origin that you have returned the bottle to the ELGAS agent in Elliston to stop getting charged rent.

Make an account on-line or call them direct on 13 11 61

(Do not make the account @ Elliston Caravan Park.)

Anglican Church

Following a recent Parishioners' meeting with the Bishop John Stead, it seems the Sheringa [St John's] Church will have services periodically with a priest from Streaky Bay. Also the Sheringa Church could be used by other Christian denominations for the purpose of worship. The Colton [St Luke's] and Elliston [St Andrew's] churches did not really have enough representatives at the meeting to make decisions. As a result, the Bishop will likely visit Elliston/Colton, for a Public Meeting to decide what future our two churches may have, if any. Please watch this space, we shall be notified when such a meeting is to occur and interested locals may like to come along [especially if the buildings are to be sold]
