

The Elliston Echo

August 2022

ELLISTON COMMUNITY & VISITOR INFORMATION CENTRE

On Friday 8th July the 'Adelaide Guitar Festival – On The Road' came to town to play in the Elliston Community Hall! We were fortunate enough to have Joshy Willo, Laura Hill and Hussy Hicks entertain a crowd of approximately 150 people for the evening.

Thank you to the following -

Elliston Community & Visitor Information Centre staff and volunteers. Especially Karen Dolphin, Di Kelly and Josh Williams for helping set up the hall and Di Kelly and Marg Harrowfield for helping to pack up the next day.

Guy and Sharon and staff from the Elliston Sports Centre for setting up, running the bar and for opening the sports centre bar after the event.

Pim Tree and staff members from Bakery No.9 for catering the event with her delicious food.

District Council of Elliston for funding the accommodation and a special thanks to Brenda from the Elliston Apartments for providing a discounted rate to accommodate the Adelaide guitar festival staff and musicians.

Also thank you to Hannah Zerk from the Council for helping pack away the chairs the following week.

We would also like to thank local Artist Cait Wait for exhibiting her paintings. They are a collaboration with Zephyr Jones, an eleven-year-old girl who grows her flowers at Bramfield. Each week, she arranged her flowers to sell at the information centre and Cait has endeavoured to capture the brilliance and aliveness of Zephyrs' creations, in the paintings you see on the walls.

We hope everyone enjoyed the night!
